

HASLEMERE NATURAL HISTORY SOCIETY

The Society's area is defined as a six mile circle, centred on Haslemere Town Hall
(Being considered a reasonable distance for Victorian ladies to cycle!).

Records are maintained of sightings within this area, but we're also very interested to hear of anything particularly unusual just outside our boundaries. So do please e-mail us details if you see something interesting whether it's animal, vegetable or fungi.